From the Board of Revenue, Reference B.188/49-1
dated 5-3-1949.

Under the note at the beginning of Board Standing Order 24-A, no application for grant of state land to a company, association or society (other than Roman Catholic churches, dioceses, Mt and Missions) should be considered, unless such company, association or society has been registered under the Acts specified in the note at the beginning of the Standing Order. The Government direct that a similar restriction be imposed in respect of grants under Board Standing Order 15-A also. The Board is accordingly requested to issue necessary amendment to Board Standing Order 15-A.

(By Order of His Excellency the Governor)
